

RICE UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT LAW ENFORCEMENT YOUTH ACADEMY TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Rice University Police Department Law Enforcement Youth Academy (LEYA) is a summer program designed to give students an inside look of law enforcement and to build positive bonds with our youth. LEYA is a one-week program with on campus and off campus field trips. LEYA will consist of Law Enforcement topics that will be discussed throughout the week. Some topics and scenarios may be considered sensitive. It is important that both the guardian and student read over the topics. LEYA will have Mentors that will directly work with the students. The students will be expected to abide by the rules and regulations of the programs. The following expectations are:

- The student shall treat others with respect
- The student shall not be disruptive during class
- The student shall limit their cell phone use during class
- The student shall not use offensive language and/or profanity
- The student shall follow the rules given to them by their Mentors.

Students who do not abide by the rules and regulations will be subject to immediate removal from the program.
